

Rights for housing and support What can I do if I'm worried about my human rights?

What can I do if I'm worried about my rights?

You can talk to staff in public services about their decisions to do with where you live.

You can ask them to tell you how they are looking after your rights.

You may think changes could be made which mean that your human rights would be better protected.

Then you can tell staff in public services about this.

What can I do if I'm worried about my rights?

Their decision might not be the best option for you.

The British Institute of Human Rights has an online tool called Know Your Human Rights where you can:

Learn more about your rights

Ask questions

Find out if your issue is about human rights

Download letter templates to write about your issue

The Housing Guide was a collaboration of LDE, Housing LIN and Ace Anglia.

It was supported by a co-design group of self-advocates and families. The co-design group were Jo, Rachel, Danielle, Gary, Liz, and Kate.

Thanks to everyone who shared stories, gave us feedback, and let us include their work. Please do share feedback and comments to LDE.
